

Education Based Foundation Scholarships

Bruce R. Geyer Memorial Book Scholarship Fund (4)

- Recipients will be residents of Cape Coral, Florida;
- Recipients will have financial need;
- Preference will be given to students seeking careers in music and/or education.
- This scholarship is intended for books only; proof of charge/purchase is necessary for award.

Charleen Belcher Olliff Endowed Scholarship Fund (3)

- Scholarships will be awarded to seniors majoring in Education who plan to teach in Charlotte, Collier, Glades, Hendry or Lee County. Since the final internship is a full-time, full-semester teaching assignment in a public school, this scholarship is intended to benefit students who must resign from their jobs and make other major adjustments in their lives to complete the internship.
- It is the donor's desire to award scholarships in sufficient amounts that will allow scholarship recipients to resign from their jobs during their internship semester or make other major adjustments in their lives to complete the internship.
- The University will submit a list of qualified applicants to faculty representatives from the College of Education for final selection.

Douglas R. St. Cerny Scholarship Fund - Business Ethics Scholarship (5)

- EIB Criteria;
- The recipient(s) will be full-time degree seeking students enrolled in the College of Education.

E. Odell Carlton and Golda Carlton Scholarship Fund - Business Ethics Scholarship (5)

- EIB Criteria;
- The recipients must be from Hardee County;
- Preference will be given to students majoring in Education or Criminal Justice.

Elizabeth Franklin, George & Carol Yovanovich Memorial Scholarship Endowed Fund (3)

- Recipients will be majoring in the College of Education.

Ellen Wolfson Smyle Memorial Scholarship Endowed Fund (3)

- Recipients will be enrolled in the College of Education;
- Recipients will be studying Early Childhood Education;
- Recipients will be serious about becoming a teacher.

Golden Apple Teacher Recognition Program™ Scholarship Fund (3)

- The recipients must be teachers in the public schools of Lee County;

Education Based Foundation Scholarships

- The recipients must wish to take a course or courses to enhance classroom skills. This scholarship is not intended to assist teachers wishing to advance their administrative skills;
- Application will be made to the Golden Apple Teacher Recognition Program™;
- The Golden Apple Teacher Recognition Program™ Scholarship Committee will determine eligibility and make award recommendations to FGCU;
- Awards will be made in an effort to cover costs of desired courses and related books and supplies.

Linda and Bob Taylor Endowed Scholarship Fund - Business Ethics Scholarship (5)

- EIB Criteria;
- Recipients must be business or education majors;
- Recipients must have graduated from a high school (public or private) located in Charlotte, Collier, Glades, Hendry or Lee county;
- Recipients must have been residents of the five-county area for the past two years;
- Recipients must be drug-free and crime-free as demonstrated by an absence of any criminal record.

Robert A. Weiss, Jr. Memorial Scholarship Fund (3)

- The recipients must have at least 2.5 out of 4.0 grade point average;
- The recipients must be studying elementary education with the intent to teach;
- The scholarship will be awarded to a rising junior or senior.

THA Foundation Scholarship Fund (4)

- This scholarship is to be used for tuition, fees, and books;
- Recipients will have a high potential for entering and remaining in the elementary education teaching profession;
- Recipients will demonstrate strengths and interests in teaching mathematics, science and languages;
- Recipients will have graduated from high school;
- Recipients will be 23 years or older;
- Recipients will lack both a college degree and a fully-authorized (non-emergency, non-temporary) teaching license (credential, certificate) or hold a college degree but lacks a fully-authorized (non-emergency, non-temporary) teaching license (credential, certificate);
- Recipients will make a commitment to teach at the elementary school grade level, one year for each year of scholarship support;
- Recipients must maintain a minimum grade point average, 2.5 or higher, to maintain the award;
- Recipients must enroll full-time;
- The scholarship award will vary depending on the needs of the individual students, with a maximum award of $7,500 per year, $2,500 per semester;

Education Based Foundation Scholarships

- Recipients must be a U.S. citizen (natural or naturalized);
- Recipients agree to keep FGCU Foundation informed about his/her teaching career. In this way, THA Foundation can accurately evaluate scholarship criteria for future recipients. (It is the desire of THA Foundation to produce long-term teachers.
- The University will present qualified candidates to the Dean of the College of Education for the faculty's recommendations.
- By April 30th of each year, the FGCU scholarship committee will provide a list of qualified candidates to the THA board member liaison for recommendation.

William J. and Lillian S. Hudson Endowed Scholarship Fund (3)

- The recipients must be seeking a degree in political science or education;
- The recipients may be either undergraduates or graduates;
- The recipients must demonstrate financial need;
- The awards may be used for, but are not limited to, payment of tuition, room and board, books, supplies and other fees associated with this academic pursuit.

i

ⁱ Red text means not on the original list you gave me but I found that they had to deal with education majors.